Charting the Course to Employment

Join us to learn about Charting the LifeCourse and the roles we hold in our day-to-day lives to support individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. We will learn about key principles for supporting individuals and engaging families to enhance a person-centered approach for planning and supporting life experiences that will provide preparation for employment. We will also be introduced to tools that can be used specifically to plan and problem solve for transition and employment, as well as provide a way to capture a family perspective for employment supports and outcomes.

This interactive, hands-on workshop will:

- Highlight the significant role families play in their members with disabilities lives across the lifespan.
- Introduce the LifeCourse Framework as a foundation for working with individuals with disabilities and their families to achieve a “good life.”
- Highlight the use of Charting the LifeCourse framework and related decision making and problem solving tools for employment outcomes.

Who should attend: Individuals who engage with families around employment: Self-advocates, parents, community rehabilitation providers, family liaisons, community mental health service providers, support coordinators, Peer Mentors, WIPA Leads, Voc Rehab organizations, Arcs, Disability Network staff, and Seamless Transition pilot partners
